LANCIA MONTECARLO CONSORTIUM LTD PRIVACY NOTICE

The Lancia Montecarlo Consortium Ltd respects your privacy and we will only use your information in the way we describe in this notice. When using your information, we aim to be fair and transparent, and to follow our obligations under UK data protection laws. Your information is used for administering club membership, activities, and competitions.

The Club relies on its legitimate interests as the lawful basis for processing personal and media (photographic) data. This reflects the normal and expected activities of a membership organisation documenting and promoting its events, community, and a historical record.

The Lancia Montecarlo Consortium Ltd is the data controller for the purpose of GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018. Our address is 300 Knightsfield, Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire, AL8 7NQ. Our club contact for privacy and data is Tim Mountain, and the contact details are: secretary@lanciamontecarlo.club

Collecting your information

We collect your information when you fill in membership application or renewal forms, and competition event entry forms. You can give us your information using paper forms or online forms. The information you give us may include your contact details (name, address, telephone number, email address), personal information and identifiers (date of birth, membership number, competition licence number), and other information (vehicle details). When you give us information about another person, such as a child, parent, guardian, or emergency contact you should let that person know that you have given us the information.

If you are under 18 years old, we will also ask for information from your parent or guardian.

Using your information

We use your information when you first apply to become a member of The Lancia Montecarlo Consortium Ltd and then to administer and renew your club membership and provide you with member benefits. We also use your information when you enter club events. For competitions, we will publish some of your information in the programme and the results, which will be in the public domain. Your information is used in these ways to fulfil our contract with you.

We may ask you for emergency contact and next of kin details which we will only use in an emergency, and for a legitimate interest. You should let the contact and next of kin know that you have given this information to us.

We might use your information to send you event notifications and membership-related communications. You may opt out of receiving information at any time by just letting us know and by contacting us. We will not sell your information to another organisation.

To support your lifetime relationship with motor sport and The Lancia Montecarlo Consortium Ltd we may keep your information indefinitely. We will retain historical membership records where there is a legitimate interest in maintaining the Club's history, administration and records. Unless we are required to retain information by relevant legislation, we will, at your request, delete your personal data from our systems.

Sharing your information

We may share you information with the Motorsport UK as required by its General Regulations for governing motor sport, and with other Motorsport UK Registered Clubs, with medical personnel, or any other person if we have to comply with a legal obligation. We may also share your information with service providers, for example to print programmes.

Our website

When you use our club website we may collect information about you, in particular your IP (Internet Protocol) address, by using cookies. We may use this information to improve your web experience. Cookies help us to recognise you when you return to the website, and they may also help you to login securely to our web-based services, including online entry and payment.

The club website might contain links to other websites such as online entry and payment sites, partners, and advertisers. If you follow links to other websites, please review the privacy policy for each site as we are not responsible for information you share on those sites.

Media, Photography and Filming

The Club may take photographs and video recordings at club events and activities. These images may be used for the purposes of:

- Club publications (including the Club magazine)
- The Club website

- Social media channels
- Promotional and marketing materials relating to the Club and to maintain a historical record of the Club.

We will ensure that any use of images is reasonable and appropriate, and not unduly intrusive.

If you do not wish to appear in photographs or video, you may:

- inform the event organiser at the time; or
- contact the Club using the details below

We will respect such requests wherever reasonably possible, including removing images where appropriate.

Security for your information

Your information is held securely by us. We have taken all reasonable steps, and have in place appropriate security measures, to protect your information.

Your rights

- You may ask us not to process your information for promotional or marketing purposes.
- You are entitled to a copy of the information we hold about you, and to ask us to correct any inaccuracies.
- You may ask us to stop using your information, and to delete it, although we may maintain a skeleton set of your information. If you ask us to do this, we will not be able to continue our contract with you.
- You may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner (www.ico.org.uk).

This privacy notice was last updated on 8th June 2026, and we will communicate any changes to you.
